

Thank you again for inviting me to present the current CDC/ACIP Influenza Recommendations for 2021/22. It was a pleasure to meet you and your colleagues virtually!

I presented the Influenza Workgroup slides from the ACIP meeting in June – Dr. Grohskopf's presentation is publicly available on the CDC website. Please find the link to the slides here: Work group considerations and proposed recommendations for the 2021-22 Influenza

Season <https://www.cdc.gov/vaccines/acip/meetings/downloads/slides-2021-06/03-influenza-grohskopf-508.pdf> Please note that the slides are not yet 508 compliant.

The recommendations for the Influenza season 2021-22 are officially published in the recent MMWR influenza 2021-2022 update

(link: <https://www.cdc.gov/mmwr/volumes/70/rr/rr7005a1.htm>). There is a 4-page summary of the Influenza recommendations for 2021-2022 which may be useful also for the ICNC website: <https://www.cdc.gov/flu/pdf/professionals/acip/acip-2020-21-summary-of-recommendations.pdf> An overview of resources focused on Influenza for healthcare providers can be found
